

WHERE LEGENDS ARE MADE®

MEMORANDUM

TO: Prospective and Current University of Alabama Students and Employees

FROM: Dr. James T. Dalton, Executive Vice President, and Provost

Re: Fall 2025 Higher Education Act Compliance

The Higher Education Act of 1965 requires that universities participating in federal student aid programs make certain information available to their campus communities. The notice below and The University of Alabama's (UA) centralized Higher Education Act Compliance webpage is designed to help the campus community readily access information regarding policies and procedures and information pertaining to campus life.

Please contact Compliance, Ethics, and Regulatory Affairs to obtain a paper copy of this notice or to obtain paper copies of policy materials. Additionally, applicable departmental contact information is provided at the end of this notice.

PART

University of Alabama System®

GENERAL INSTITUTIONAL INFORMATION

Accreditation, Approval, and Licensure of Institution and Academic Programs

Information about Accreditation, Approval, and Licensure of Institution and Academic Programs at the University is available through the Office of Institutional Effectiveness.

Career Center

Career and Job Placement services are provided by the University's Career Center. The Career Center provides a variety of resources to assist students and alumni with self-assessment, career exploration, career preparation and job search strategies. The Career Center engages employers through development efforts, career fairs, on-campus interviewing and a variety of other initiatives in an effort to connect students with internship and employment opportunities. Questions about career services should be directed to the Career Center or the School of Law Career Services Office.

The First Destination/Placement Report captures information about Job Placement for Graduates from The University of Alabama. The report provides a variety of information including job placement, salary, and graduate school information for all colleges with the exception of the School of Law. Questions about the report should be directed to the University Career Center. Employment Summary Reports for School of Law graduates are available from the School of Law.

Copyright Infringement Policies and Sanctions

The University's Copyright Infringement Policies and Sanctions comply with the Digital Millennium Copyright Act of 1998 (DMCA). When notified of a copyright infringement, the University will suspend network access and instruct the user to run a full virus scan, remove file sharing programs, and remove copyrighted materials. The user is instructed that if they need assistance, they should contact the Office of Information Technology. In order to avoid civil or criminal penalties, an extensive list of legal alternatives for peer-to-peer file sharing is maintained through Educause. For more information, contact the Office of Information Technology or refer to the University's Copyright Statement. Students are reminded of copyright laws and policies and penalties for copyright infringement annually in the HEOA Letter to Students. Typical sanctions imposed on students found responsible for copyright infringement by the Office of Student Conduct are listed on the Office of Information Technology's website.

Instructional Facilities and Demographics

Information about the Instructional Facilities and Demographics is available through the Office of Institutional Research and Assessment (OIRA) or more detailed information may be accessed through departmental websites.

Facilities and Services for Students with Disabilities

Services for students with academic disabilities are facilitated by the Office of Disability Services (ODS). ODS provides disability-related information and referrals; documents a student's disability and conducts needs assessments; facilitates reasonable academic accommodations; and provides disability-related technical assistance, auxiliary aids/services, and advocacy and training. Inquiries concerning ADA requirements and compliance may be directed to the Office of Equal Opportunity Programs. Additionally, the University's web accessibility initiative provides technology users, including those with disabilities, a functional and accessible technology experience with our web presence and our instructional and emerging technologies. Questions about this initiative should be directed to the Technology Accessibility office.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA)

The University of Alabama has policies and procedures to comply with The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) available in the Office of the University Registrar's privacy guidelines. FERPA protects the privacy and confidentiality of personally identifiable information contained within student education records maintained by UA.

Teacher Preparation Program Report

The Alabama Department of Education reports annually to the United States Department of Education on the quality of teacher preparation programs in Alabama. The Title II Report contains data submitted by The University of Alabama and other institutions.

STUDENT INFORMATION

Academic Programs

The listings leading to an undergraduate degree, graduate degree, and/or law degree are available online in the Academic Catalog.

Course materials

Undergraduate and graduate course material are available online at the University Supply Store. To the extent it is available, the International Standard Book Number (ISBN) and retail price information of required and recommended textbooks for students is also available in the schedule of classes through MyBama. For more information, contact The University Supply Store (SUPeStore). Course materials for the School of Law classes are available online in textbooks on the School of Law's website.

Intercollegiate Athletic Program

By October 15th of each year, the University prepares an Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act \(EADA\) report, which includes Athletic Participation Rates and Financial Support Data.

Internal Complaint Process

Information about the University's Internal Complaint Process for students regarding educational programs and contact information for filing complaints with the University's accrediting agency, and/or regarding state approval or licensing for distance learning programs, and/or for complaints regarding state consumer protection laws is available through the Office of the Provost's website. The Provost's website for internal complaints also provides additional details concerning other complaint processes at the University, including the on-line student complaint and appeal process and the School of Law's student complaint process.

State Authorization and Professional Licensure

The University of Alabama seeks to deliver degree programs and course offerings in every state, working through the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreement (NC-SARA) where applicable, or directly with states to ensure that required approvals are secured. The state of Alabama is a member of NC-SARA and The University of Alabama is an approved NC-SARA institution. For more information about NC-SARA, please visit NC-SARA.

Additionally, The University of Alabama offers degree programs that may lead to professional licensure, and licensure requirements vary from one profession to another and from state to state. If you are interested in obtaining professional licensure, please check with the appropriate licensing body in the state where you intend to practice. Additional information can be found on the Professional Licensure website.

Student Accounts

Price of attendance at the University for all students, including a complete list of current costs for the current year, is available at Student Account Services. The total annual cost of attendance as well as scholarship and financial aid eligibility, is captured in the Net Price Calculator. Refunds may be issued to students if sufficient funds exist to create credit balances and in accordance with the University withdrawal policy. Students must acknowledge a Financial Responsibility Agreement as part of their registration. Additional information about the Impact of Withdrawal on Federal Financial Aid, Loans and Scholarships is captured in the University's withdrawal policy. The University's Undergraduate Student Withdrawal Policy (from the University, from a course, or when called to active military duty) is available in the Academic Catalog. The Withdrawal Policy for graduate students is captured in the Graduate Catalog and the withdrawal policy for law students is captured in the School of Law Student Handbook.

Student Diversity

Student Diversity at the University, including the number of enrolled full-time students by gender and race/ethnicity, is captured by the Office of Institutional Research and Assessment. More detailed information is available in the Common Data Set. The School of Law is required to capture Enrollment data by the ABA and it is updated annually. The Office of Institutional Research and Assessment also captures gender and race/ethnicity in its Graduate Student Population report.

Student Financial Assistance

Federal assistance is available from Federal, State and Institutional Programs. The list includes Federal Pell Grants, Direct Subsidized and Unsubsidized Stafford Loans, and many others. The process for applying for scholarships varies based on whether you are an entering freshman, a transfer student, or a currently enrolled student.

WHERE LEGENDS ARE MADE®

Financial support in the form of assistantships, fellowships and scholarships is available to qualified graduate students. In most cases, assistantships and fellowships include a full-tuition scholarship, health insurance and a generous stipend. Further details are found in the Financial Assistance section of the Academic Catalog. Additionally, the School of Law offers scholarship opportunities for Law students.

Satisfactory Academic Progress must be maintained to remain eligible for federal financial aid. The Student Financial Aid website contains information about eligibility requirements and procedures to apply for aid; criteria for selecting recipients and determining amount of award; methods and frequency of disbursements; financial aid terms and conditions; and student rights and responsibilities.

Notices about exit counseling or promissory notes for Institutional Loans are available thru ECSEI. Federal Direct Loan notices concerning entrance counseling, exit counseling and promissory notes are available on the Federal Student Aid website. For more information, contact the Office of Student Financial Aid.

Student Handbook

UA's rules, regulations, and policies applicable to students are found in the Student Handbook. Because this handbook may be revised from semester to semester, it is the responsibility of the student to view revisions online or to obtain revisions from the Office of Student Conduct. The Graduate Catalog includes all rules, regulations, and policies for graduate students. Law Students are also subject the Law School Handbook and Law School Honor Code.

Required immunizations need to be completed and verified prior to registering for coursework. UA's Health Requirements for Registration Policy provides additional details concerning screening and required immunization forms. Additional information can be found on the Student Health Center website.

The SOURCE provides a complete list of opportunities for students to become involved in the campus through recognized student organizations. With over 600 such organizations, the choices are endless and represent options for varied leadership/advocacy roles important to the overall education of our student body. For more information, contact The Office of Student Involvement.

Student Outcomes

Enrollment data, Retention Rate for First-time Freshmen, Graduation Rate, Transfer-out Rate, and Graduate and Professional Education Placement (including the types of programs in which graduates are enrolled) is available on the Office of Institutional Research and Assessment's (OIRA) website. For more information, contact the Office of Institutional Research and Assessment. Student learning outcome information for Law students is available on the School of Law website. The Graduate School student graduation data is also maintained on the OIRA website. Each academic degree program (undergraduate and graduate) must provide yearly reports regarding student learning outcomes in Taskstream, the University's online assessment management system. For more information, contact the Office of Institutional Effectiveness (OIE).

WHERE LEGENDS ARE MADE®

Information about Graduation Rates for Students Receiving Athletically Related Student Aid is available at the Office of the University Registrar's website.

Transfer Credit Policies and Articulation Agreements

Information about Transfer Credit Policies and Articulation Agreements is available through the Office of the University Registrar. Transfer credit for the School of Law is available on the Law School website. Graduate School transfer credit information is available in the Graduate School Catalog.

CAMPUS CLIMATE

The University of Alabama is committed to providing an environment for employees, students and campus visitors that is free from illegal harassment based on genetic or family medical history information, race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, pregnancy, age, disability, protected veteran status or any other legally protected basis. The University prohibits retaliation against individuals who, in good faith, report violations of related University policies or participate in investigations related to such policy violations. Information, questions, and incident reporting are available on the University's UAct website.

The Office of Equal Opportunity and Title IX Programs oversees the University's compliance with applicable laws prohibiting protected class discrimination or harassment, sexual misconduct, and related retaliation. This includes but is not limited to Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and applicable regulations, Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Vietnam Era Veterans' Adjustment Assistance Act, as amended by the Jobs for Veterans Act of 2022 (VEVRAA), the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 (USERRA), the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, the ADA Amendments Act of 2008, the Family and Medical Leave Act, and the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008.

Consistent with the Equal Opportunity and Nondiscrimination Policy, Harassment Policy, and Title IX & Sexual Misconduct Policy, the Office of Equal Opportunity and Title IX Programs works with University Administration, departments, students, faculty, staff, campus police, and other support services to ensure that University policies and programs foster a campus community free of illegal discrimination and harassment, sexual misconduct, and related retaliation.

Additionally, the University publishes the Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report. The report contains crime and fire statistics for the three most recent calendar years, details UA security and fire safety policies and procedures, and has information about where to request information about registered sex offenders. It also contains information about UA's Sexual Misconduct Policy, Missing Residential Student Policy and its Emergency Response, Notification, and Evacuation Procedures. A separate report is available at that same location for the Gadsden Center campus. To request a printed copy of the Campus Security and Fire Safety Report for UA or the UA Gadsden Center, contact the Clery Compliance Coordinator.

The Drug-Free Campus and Workplace Policy, applicable to students and employees, contains information about standards of conduct; disciplinary sanctions; education, counseling, and treatment programs; alcohol and other drug health risks; and drug and alcohol laws and penalties. The University of Alabama Alcohol and Other Drug Policy for Students summarizes expectations for students and contains links to other applicable policies and resources specific to students. Common disciplinary sanctions for drug and alcohol violations is published through the Office of Student Conduct. The Annual Campus Security Report, also contains a section summarizing the Drug-Free Campus and Workplace Policy and provides a link to the website identifying Drug-Misuse and/or Substance Education Programs.

Voter Registration

All students are encouraged to participate in local, state, and national elections. A copy of the Alabama voter registration form is available thru the Alabama Secretary of State. This form may be completed online, printed out, and mailed to the voter registration official in your county of residence. For additional information, please contact the Secretary of State, Elections Division, P.O. Box 5616, Montgomery, AL 36130; or call 1-800-274-8683.
